

International Conference

AFRICAN LANGUAGES AND CULTURES FROM DIVERSE PERSPECTIVES

The conference aims at exchanging ideas on various aspects of modern research within African Studies. Scholars from different disciplines are welcome to share their contributions on a range of topics related to African linguistics, literary studies, history and anthropology. The language of the conference is English.

- Linguistic structures and usage patterns
- Discourse and communication, including new media
- Cultural keywords and values
- Grammaticalization processes
- Expression of emotions
- Gestures and sign languages
- Various literary genres, including proverbs and riddles
- Translation and second language teaching
- Cultural anthropology
- Postcolonial studies

VENUE: APRIL 15, 2024
CHAIR OF AFRICAN LANGUAGES AND CULTURES
15/17 TYNIECKA STREET, WARSAW, POLAND

E-mail contact:
conf.orient@uw.edu.pl

ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

Prof. Iwona Kraska-Szlenk
Dr. Izabela Romańczuk
Dr. Patryk Zając

Website:
<http://www.afrykanistyka.uw.edu.pl/conference/>

